Champagne & Port for Valentines

BOTTLE

1996 Ayala Blanc de Blanc Champagne$35.99

A broad shouldered, all chardonnay wine, but with the fantastic zip of the vintage as a balance. Not only will it go extremely well with your steamed clam dinner, it is excellently priced. If you are not in the mood for fussing, this wine is also great with cracked crab, a couple of lemons, and flaky sourdough bread.

Fleury Rosé $41.99

100% pinot noir from Courteron, in the southern part of Champagne. They say proudly that their town is closer to Chablis than Reims, and the style of wine owes as much to Burgundy as the stylish bottle does to the grand marques of Reims. The vineyards, which are all their own, are farmed 100% bio-dynamically, the strictest form of organic viticulture. The base wine is all from the 1998 vintage. In the glass it has a wonderful, fresh pinot noir nose of strawberry fruit and earthy intrigue. On the palate it has a great small bubble texture with magnificent depth and terroir. Romantic!

Smith-Woodhouse Lodge Reserve Port$11.99

Lively, spicy, clove nuances on the palate. Refreshing and satisfying. Here is a value-packed, everynight sipper.

1985 Quinta Do Noval Port$39.95

One of the great values in dessert wine. Soft and elegant with plenty of spicy fruit flavors. You and your significant other by the fire with glasses of this heavenly port.

New Arrivals from Bordeaux

BOTTLE

1998 Reserve de Léoville-Barton, St-Julien$19.95

1998 Reserve de Léoville-Barton, St-Julien (1.5L)$39.95

It's back and in magnums too! One of the best buys in all of Bordeaux. Plenty of richness and flavor for a very good price. A baby Leoville.

1989 Pavie, St-Emilion$89.00

Parker scores it 89 points: 'excellent ripeness, a firm, fleshy texture, and an attractively long, intense finish. Gobs of extract and is among the most powerful wines produced at Pavie in the last two decades.'

1986 Léoville-Barton, St-Julien$99.00

90 pts, Wine Spectator: 'Locked up tight with dense currant, spice and cedar flavors framed by tannins. On the finish there are hints of elegance and grace.'

1985 Ducru Beaucaillou, St-Julien$109.00

91 points from Parker: 'The 1985 offers a wonderful, rich, ripe, generous, currant fruitiness, medium to full body, a creamy texture backed by ripe tannins, and a long, balanced, impressive finish. This is one 1985 that may well turn out to be a clone of this property's 1953—high praise indeed.'

1990 Pichon Lalande, Pauillac$119.00

Wine Spectator scores it 94 points and says "Concentrated. Medium-ruby color, with ripe plum, cigar tobacco and smoke aromas. Full-bodied, with chewy tannins and a long finish. Still closed, almost clumsy. Give it time.—1990 Bordeaux retrospective. Best after 2005."

1986 Cos d'Estournel, St-Estephe.....$139.00

95 points from Robert Parker: 'Highly extracted wine, with a black/ruby color and plenty of toasty, smoky notes in its bouquet that suggest ripe plums and licorice. Evolving at a glacial pace, it exhibits massive, huge, ripe, extremely concentrated flavors with impressive depth and richness. Anticipated maturity: 1996-2010.'

1989 Mouton Rothschild, Pauillac$249.00

'98 points from the Wine Spectator, 'A monster Mouton that's incredibly closed and tight right now. Aromas of cassis, blackberries, plums and coffee with hints of licorice. Full-bodied and compacted, featuring very firm tannins and a long, long, silky texture on the finish. It's still a baby.'

New Arrival Kalinda Wines

2000 Kalinda Russian River Valley Chardonnay.....$8.99

Just arrived. An elbow bender and superb value. Cinammon flavors and creamy texture.

1999 Kalinda Dry Creek Zinfandel..... $10.99

Loaded with berries and flavor. Bright, fleshy, upfront and ready to drink.

1999 Kalinda Cental Coast Syrah$11.99

Ripe, spicy, jammy fruit explodes in the mouth.

2000 Kalinda Dry Creek Cabernet Sauvignon$14.95

Fruity, vanilla toasty oak aromas and flavor. Lots of richness for the price.

1999 Kalinda Napa Valley Sangiovese$14.95

Full-flavored, racy sangiovese. One of California's best.

Back In the Old Wine Business

Joe and I apologize for almost running out of old and rare bordeaux during the holidays. By the 15th of December our inventory was at a ten year low with about two weeks supply in stock. Luckily we bought a few cellars in December to get through into January. I found some great buys in the UK and France and we decided to transport them by air in order to have plenty of rarities for our customers in February. With the high prices for 2000 Bordeaux and one's inability to enjoy this great vintage for quite a few years, we must turn to bordeaux wines from the '70s and '80s for our current consumption. Many are ready to drink right now and they are priced reasonably. Wines such as 1989 Pavie at $89 ($60 below 2000 price), 1986 Léoville-Barton at $99 (less than their 2000 price), and 1985 Ducru-Beaucaillou at $109 (the 2000 is about $90) are just a few examples of excellent mature claret at very good prices. We now have an excellent old bordeaux inventory just waiting to be purchased. Have a happy Valentine's with one of these beauties.

Jim C's View From Down Under

2000 Slaley Chardonnay ($14.99) The grapes for this wine were harvested from 8- and 16-year-old vines that were whole-bunch pressed with 80% of the juice barrel-fermented in 80% new French oak. 25% of the wooded juice underwent malolactic fermentation. This wine shows ripe spicy tropical fruits with notes of honey. Remarkably clean, the use of wood serves to add the spice and texture in the wine leaving the fruit to be in the forefront. There is wonderful balancing acidity and a fine finish.

1999 Slaley Merlot ($14.99) Made from 100% merlot, this wine was harvested from 7 year-old vines growing on the southwest facing slopes of the Simonsberg mountain and spent 20 months in 60% French and 40% American oak. Extended maceration resulted in a wine with good color and supple tannins. In the nose there are elements of earth, plum, chocolate and a hint of sage. The wine has elegant balance and good length.

1996 Lanzerac Cabernet Sauvignon Stellenbosch, South Africa ($24.99) The Lanzerac homestead was converted into a luxury hotel in 1958 and remains the only hotel in South Africa to have its own winery. In 1991 Christo Wiese acquired the property and got serious about developing the wines, with all harvesting done by hand along with a extreme triage for their premier wines. The bouquet shows bright cherry fruit along with tobacco notes that are framed by toasted oak. These elements follow on the palate with good structure. Decant for an hour and enjoy!

1999 Conerstone Cabernet/Merlot Hawkes Bay, New Zealand ($24.99) Hawkes Bay is New Zealand's oldest and second largest viticultural region, with vines planted in 1851. Located on the east coast of the north island, it has the warmest climate in the country and produces red wines of high quality. Cornerstone is situated in the Gimblett Road area, which has established itself as a superb environment for bordeaux varietals. The wine is a blend of 50% cabernet sauvignon, 25% merlot, 14% malbec, and 11% cabernet franc. The wine is rich with great depth of flavor offering spicy blackberry, plum and chocolate flavors. Enhanced with subtle oak nuances, there are silky tannins and a long finish.

—Jim Chanteloup

Amor, Amor, Amor Some fine selections to stir the Latin heart in us all . . .

2000 Bodegas Norton Sauvignon Blanc ($6.99) Nothin' says lovin' like a great wine at a great price. This sauvignon blanc has plenty of ripe melon and citrus flavors.

1999 Bodegas Norton Malbec ($5.99) Under $10 bucks and yummy, this Malbec has ripe currant fruit oak and spice. An Argentine red that's a great match for braised short ribs.

1998 Finca Flichman Malbec ($9.99) Finca Flichman is located in the heart of the Mendoza, Argentina's most famous wine region. From the dark currant fruit and spice to the long mouth-filling oaky finish, this red is sure to please even the most die-hard cabernet lover. Try it with a grilled flank steak and roasted red potatoes.

1999 Vall Llach Embruiux (Inquire) Fine red from the heart of Priorat, the Embruiux is made from a blend of 40% grenache, 40% cabernet sauvignon, and 20% carignan and aged in French oak. Packed with ripe berry fruit and rich vanilla oak, this red is a must try for those of you who love Aussie wines. Drink now or keep for the next 5-7 years.

1999 Vall Llach Priorat (Inquire) Yummy, yummy stuff! This powerful red from Priorat is made from a blend of 50% carignan and 50% merlot that is aged in new French oak. Thick, rich and packed with fruit, this Priorat packs a wallop with dark cherry and blackberry fruit, vanilla oak, and spice. Keep this red for at least 5 years and up to 10+ years. Both of these Vall Llach wines are favorites with Mr Parker.

Happy Valentine's Day to all! Anne

1996 Domaine de Gautieux, Pauillac $19.99

Third wine of Pichon-Lalande. Fabulous value! Only produced in the great vintages. Always tasty and balanced, it is almost all merlot in 1996.

1996 d'Issan, Margaux$34.95

Toasty and elegant for the vintage. Plenty of blackberry, currant, and cherry character. Medium to full-bodied, with velvety tannins and a long, fruity aftertaste. This wine was one of the Wine Spectator top 100 of 1999.

1996 Haut-Brion, Graves$169.00

1996 Mouton-Rothschild, Pauillac ..$169.00

1996 Pavie, St-Emilion$37.99

A sentimental favorite because it marks one of the last vintages that Jean-Paul Valette was involved with before he sold the estate. Mr Valette was one of the friendliest and most hospitable proprietors in Bordeaux, and he will be missed deeply. This wine is $100 a bottle less than their 2000 offering.

94-96+ points from Robert Parker, "A profound success, the 1996 is one of the finest examples made under the regime of Madame de Lencquesaing. Anticipated maturity: 2002-2025" 75% cabernet sauvignon—quite high for the château.

1996 Pontet Canet, Pauillac.....$39.99

A full-bodied wine, it possesses layered, concentrated sweet fruit, with an elevated level of ripe tannin."

1997 Latour, Pauillac (1.5L).....$269.00

1997 Léoville-Barton, St-Julien$35.99

One of the best of the vintage! Elegant, up-front, with a core of round tannin and ripe fruit true to its style of pure, dark blackberry fruit, wood and intensity, but it's soft enough to enjoy now with rich dishes.

1997 Léoville-Las-Cases, St-Julien$89.00

1997 Montrose, St-Estèphe$49.99

1997 Palmer, Margaux$59.95

Warm Up Your Winter with Young Bordeaux

This is a great time of year for lovers and lovers of wine. Here in northern California old man winter keeps us cold and wet, so it's a perfect time to be snuggling next to a warm fire with your honey, sipping some good wine and eating some hearty food. It's also a good time to get your wine collection organized (which I'm doing), clearing out some space for the many new arrivals from Bordeaux. Fresh 2000 vintage whites, boldly styled '98 reds, and some luscious '99 reds. A combination of fine vintages, great winemaking, and a strong American dollar makes these fantastic wines a great value. You have to love that. Let's throw another log on the fire and get started with two lovely whites.

2000 Château Magneau Blanc ($8.99) This is a wine meant to be drunk young while it's vivacious and fresh. It has floral notes of lime and white peaches, good focus, and is very clean, with a slight mineral tone to the dry finish. It's lightness is what is so great about it! It screams for oysters and is superb with the cracked crab and sourdough I'm nibbling on.

2000 Château Mayne-Leveque Blanc ($9.99) The same blend as Magneau, which is very common in the Graves appellation—almost half sauvignon blanc and semillon with a few percentages of muscadelle. This wine is the second wine of Château Chantegrive and features much stronger flavors. Intense citrus and tart green apple fruit attack you at the onset. Combine that with brisk acidity and a strong, long almost Chablis like finish and you have a very fine white Bordeaux. I cannot wait to serve it with paella!

Moving onto the red wines and starting on the right bank. Clyde has procured more of the huge staff favorite, 1998 Château La Fleur de Rouzes, Pomerol ($19.95). This is an amazing, classy bottle of Pomerol for the money. Perfect natural extraction of merlot fruit; a lovely nose of ripe berries with toasty-smoky oak, followed by cherries and cassis on the palate. The best value we've had from Pomerol in many years. Don't miss it! Another fantastic value from the right bank is 1999 Château St Georges ($18.95). Owned and run by Petrus Desbois, this is a large estate right outside St-Emilion in what is the St George-St-Emilion appellation. My introduction to this wine had a lot to do with my early love and passion for the wines of Bordeaux. I visited the estate for the first time this summer and it is gorgeous. Petrus himself planted half the vineyard when he was young man so the vines are 35-40 years old in that block alone. 60% or so merlot gives the wine its spicy, ripe raspberry fruit and nice earth tones; good backbone and grip come from the addition of cabernet sauvignon and cabernet franc. Lovely wine.

We will cross over to the left bank of the Gironde estuary for our last wine. 1999 Château Cambon La Pelouse, Haut Médoc ($14.99) is a cru bourgeois that is a neighbor of Château Cante-merle to the south and Château Giscours and the Margaux appellation to the north. This is the first time we have purchased Pelouse. It is a very rich, full-bodied blend of 50% merlot, 30% cabernet sauvignon and 20% franc. This big silky wine borders on the exotic and I think will eventually be a big crossover wine for California palates. What can you buy from CA for this price? Try it!

Cheers, I hope you can join me on my semi-annual "Golf and Taste the Greats of Bordeaux and Biarritz" from Aug 31-Sept12. Call me at ex 623 with any questions and details. —Ralph Sands

California is back on top for 2002!

Watch out everyone, here come a couple of excellent vintages in California! 1999 and 2000 will provide some great wines in both reds and whites. The reds from 1999, especially cabernet sauvignon, are high in quality, filled with plenty of fruit, structure, and balance. The whites from 2000 show excellent balance and freshness. Speaking of whites, are you tired of chardonnay? A great way to mix things up would be to try the 2000 St Supery "Meritage" White Wine ($17.99). A blend of semillon and sauvignon blanc, this wine has the richness of a chardonnay and the freshness of a great sauvignon blanc. This combination is perfect with appetizers, fresh fish and oysters. If you are not tired of chardonnay and enjoy them as much as I do, then I would try the 2000 Byington Santa Cruz Mountains Chardonnay ($12.99). A lively, fresh and clean wine upfront with a rich, butterscotch middle and long finish. Again, excellent with light pasta dishes and fish. For a lighter red, I would strongly recommend trying the 1999 Iron Horse Sonoma Pinot Noir ($24.99). This wine is a wonderfully rich, and fresh pinot that is balanced, elegant, and long on the finish. Tons of delicate fruit on the palate with flavors of mint, toast, spice and sweet herbs, the Iron Horse Pinot pairs excellent with salmon, chicken and pork. For you cabernet fans here is one of our favorites every year! The 1999 Mount Eden Estate Cabernet Sauvignon ($28.99) shows a full, deep structure, flavors of cassis, dark mocha and mint. Like so many 1999 cabernet sauvignon's we have tasted it shows great right now and will cellar well over the next 5-10 years. For an interesting red, a great pick is the 2000 Orin Swift Cellars "The Prisoner" ($21.99). The first offering from Orin Swift Cellars is a blend of 50% old vine zinfandel, 25% cabernet sauvignon, 20% charbono and 5% petite sirah. The wine shows ripe, bright fruit, a medium body and a long spicy finish. Hints of toast upfront and good acidity on the finish, this wine screams for grilled meats, spare ribs or barbecue chicken. —Trey Beffa

Brian's Best Bets to Stump the Stars

Four wines to baffle and amaze your wine drinking pals. Taste them blind and there's a good chance their heads will explode trying to figure them out. Best to try this exercise outside of your home or be prepared . . .

1999 Kalinda Napa Valley Sangiovese ($14.95) Grown in the cabernet sauvignon heartland, this beauty will perplex even the un-perplex-able. Fantastic nose on this wine, great spice and length to savor. A good edge of oak with an almost sweet finish. It's amazing what growing in 5 feet of top-soil allows this Italian varietal to achieve. Bring out the towels.

1999 Kalinda Russian River Pinot Meunier ($9.99) Used to make champagne and sparkling wines, this wine shows the grape's versatility. A very syrup-like nose leads to a lively berry flavor that sticks around on your palate for a good long time. It will be tough for anybody to believe this isn't a French burgundy. Again a perfect stump the stars candidate. Get out the tarp.

1999 Shenandoah Amador County Special Reserve Zinfandel (Inquire) From the land that started the craze for zinfandel. Great lively fruit with berries and Bing cherry flavors. It's surrounded by an edge that is tight and mineral-like. A light pepper finish will have them thinking of a Côtes du Rhône. Terrific buy for an every night red! Not on the good furniture.

1998 Cuvaison Napa Valley Merlot ($25.95) Wow! There's a whole lot of wine in this glass, very dark in color and with a heavy nose. You won't know what your getting into! For a merlot this is layered and complex with a tea-bag edge that would throw a bloodhound off the trail. Old bordeaux or young petite sirah? Your guests will need help with this one. Just for fun a little chocolate on the finish. Delicious! —Happy stumping! BK

The Neglected Chard

The "in" thing to do these days is criticize California chardonnay, but there's a reason this is one of the most popular sections in our stores—people like chardonnay. From appetizer to fancy dinner wine, chardonnay is always a staple, and the numbers prove it. Unfortunately, we tend to neglect chards and assume everyone will know what they want with no advice. Well, let's change that. I will give you a few good comforting chardonnays to try for February. The 2000 Simi Sonoma Chard ($13.99) Citrus fruits and clean, clear, ripe flavors of apple with soft French oak highlighted by soft floral notes make this a great wine at a nice price. This venerable winery has come up with a terrific classic chardonnay from Russian River and Carneros fruit. The 1999 Byron Santa Maria Chardonnay ($16.99) is a great example of southern Cal chard. Soft French oak and tropical fruit on the nose followed by a nice mouthfeel and focused pear/apple blossom/citrus peel in the mouth with enough acidity to compliment a meal. One of the early producers in the area, Byron has turned out a lovely balanced wine. From one of K&L's favorite producers the 2000 Mount Eden MacGregor Chardonnay ($16.99) is from a single vineyard in Edna Valley. Rich and toasty, this is very open & drinkable, with round oakiness and crisp, apple fruit filling the mouth, followed by a nice buttery finish—one of the most popular styles in the store. One of our big hits this past year was the 2000 Wente Riva River Ranch Chard ($12.99). Big, fat, rich pineapple and guava fruit mixed with full buttery, creamy American oak from start to finish, this wine has won hearts around here. A popular style shown off fully in a wine with a fantastic price. One of the most popular and collectable chards for years the 1999 Newton Unfiltered Chard ($42.99) from Napa has arrived, and in all its glory, rich and full from the expansive aromas of oak, orange peel pear and spices to the mouth filling decadence of its solid fruit and buttery finish . . . very showy. —Shaun Green

JOIN OUR Wine of the Month Clubs!

Our goal at the K&L wine clubs is to search the world on your behalf to discover sensational values that normally sell for much more than the price you will pay. When you sign up for either club you will receive two bottles of wine each month. With each shipment comes a review of that month's featured wines that includes background information on the wineries and their regions, along with detailed tasting notes from our expert staff. We also offer food suggestions and recipes that will complement each wine. These special prices are only available to our members.

Imagine enjoying wonderful California wines, carefully selected by our experienced wine buyers, for much less than the cost of comparable wines. Think about trying some of the finest wines that Europe has to offer for much less than their normal price.

Our wine buyers travel to Europe several times a year and are continually discovering special wines from France, Italy, Spain and other wine regions of the world. By buying directly from the source, we eliminate importers' markups and we are able to bring you these unique wines at bargain prices.

Don't miss out on these great finds

THE BEST BUY WINE CLUB

A great way to learn about wine! Are you interested in sampling wines from different wine regions of the world? Then this is the club for you. For $17.95 a month plus shipping and handling you will receive two bottles of wine a month (usually, but not always, a bottle of red and a bottle of white).

THE PREMIUM WINE CLUB

For the more experienced drinker, this club offers a great way to receive fine wine right at your front door. The Premium Wine Club wines are wines that have a higher retail value than the Best Buy Wines. These wines would retail for over $18. All you pay for two bottles each month is $29.95 a month plus shipping and handling.

NEW ARRIVAL CLASSIC WINES

1985 Ducru Beaucaillou, St-Julien ..$109.00

91 points from Parker, "The 1985 offers a wonderful, rich, ripe, generous, curranty fruitiness, medium to full body, a creamy texture backed by ripe tannins, and a long, balanced, impressive finish. This is one 1985 that may well turn out to be a clone of this property's 1953" —high praise indeed.

1985 Léoville-Las-Cases, St-Julien ..$139.00

1986 Cos d'Estournel, St-Estèphe$139.00

95 points from Robert Parker: "Highly extracted wine, with a black/ruby color and plenty of toasty, smoky notes in its bouquet that suggest ripe plums and licorice. Evolving at a glacial pace, it exhibits massive, huge, ripe, extremely concentrated flavors with impressive depth and richness. Anticipated maturity: 1996-2010."

1986 Léoville-Barton, St-Julien

90 pts Wine Spectator: "Locked up tight with dense currant, spice and cedar flavors framed by tannins. On the finish there are hints of elegance and grace."

1986 Lynch-Bages, Pauillac

1988 Lynch-Bages, Pauillac

1988 Pichon Lalande, Pauillac.....

Epitome of balance and classic styling.

1988 Pichon Baron, Pauillac

1988 Mouton-Rothschild, Pauillac ..$199.00

1989 Mouton-Rothschild, Pauillac ..$249.00

98 points from the Wine Spectator: "A monster Mouton that's incredibly closed and tight right now. Aromas of cassis, blackberries, plums and coffee with hints of licorice. Full-bodied and compacted, featuring very firm tannins and a long, long, silky texture on the finish. It's still a baby."

1989 Pavie, St-Emilion

Parker scores it 89 points, "Excellent ripeness, a firm, fleshy texture, and an attractively long, intense finish. Gobs of extract and is among the most powerful wines produced at Pavie in the last two decades."

1990 Cos d'Estournel, St-Estèphe$149.00

1990 Pichon Lalande, Pauillac.....$119.00

Confessions of the Vine: A Wine Lover Repents

The spires of the steeple gleam in the bright mid-morning sunshine as I shuffle up the steps of the church of St-Joseph of Aspirin for Children. I nod to my parishioners as I negotiate the center aisle of the church, my eyes adjusting to the kaleidoscopic reflections from the stained glass windows. They are all here: the saints, the sinners, the white zinfandel drinkers. I duck between pews and make my way to the confessional. Today is the annual day of the Confessions of the Vine—there will be many, and I will be hearing them. I'm Father Joe, and today I will need the strength of many to be One Patient Son of a Gun.

After a grueling afternoon, my last appointment steps into the vestibule. I murmur the "God bless you pluribus unum" to get us both in the mood. Without preamble, this man who gives his name as Ralph (surely a false moniker) begins to confess his sins to me.

"Bless me, Father, for I have sinned. It has been a whale of a long time since my last confession. I continue to hide the fact that I put ice cubes in my white wine." "Better than the red," I murmur. "What, Father?" "Better left unsaid," I say, reminding myself not to speak aloud my thoughts. "Is there anything else, my son?" "Yes, Father," Ralph says as he takes a deep breath, never a good sign. "I'd like to talk about Bordeaux. When the vintage of 1988 was released, I was not forceful enough to let the public know the quality of the vintage. I did not speak out in their defense when some famous writers wrote that the wines were angular and a bit on the simple side, wines not to be kept until the Second Coming. They were wrong, Father. Many of the '88s have blossomed miraculously into wines with great breed and finesse, not to mention complexity. I am ashamed." "I would be too," I murmur. "What, Father?" "I feel for you," I say. God, I've got to stop that.

Jim's February Gems

Last year, Keith discovered, during one of his buying trips to Bourgogne, a wonderfully delicious declassified Macon-Villages wine from the great 1999 vintage. Having an over-production of chardonnay, the producer didn't want to waste his time or money filling out the needed paperwork to give it a proper label. Soooo, he put no vintage or communal indications on the label, and offered it as a vin ordinaire generic bourgogne blanc (all California generic white wines should be this good!). Well, I meant to feature the Plaisir des Princes ($5.99) in this newsletter at the end of spring last year, but all 150 cases sold out in less than six weeks, once everyone (including yours truly) realized that it behaved as if it was a lovely Chassagne Montrachet. Keith was able to purchase a small amount of it, so don't wait—jump on it before it disappears. Ebby says this will be our house white for the month. 🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾

I love our DI program. We've brought in so many incredibly great wines over the years from France, Italy, and now from the rest of the world. We are able to directly buy and receive wonderfully high quality wines from other countries with very few people in the middle to add cost to our retails. It means that we can sell incomparably high quality wines at incomparably low prices to our customers. Isn't that what this industry should be about? It seems that most of us have forgotten that wine is to be, for the most part, consumed with food, rather than being treated as an art form where you can charge a b'zillion dollars for whatever. I love it when we find a wine like 2000 François de Nanton, "Reserve du Maître de Chais, Macon Carnay Villages ($8.99). Here is a wine that is substantially proportioned, almost Californian in its ripeness. It's lush, rich and has loads of tropical fruit crossed with peaches, pears, and cream. California chardonnay in style with the backbone, dryness, and a heart of bourgogne blanc that is at least one half the price. Both Ebby and Rex say enjoy! 🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾

"The wines were angular and simple in their youth, Ralph. Take the '88 Lynch-Bages: it didn't seem like it would be worth buying at all upon release. Look at it now. A big, bold and fleshy offering with that telltale pencil lead nose and punctuated with a solid core of dark fruit. It is massive and dares not to turn the other cheek. And do you remember the Pichon-Lalande, Ralph?"

"Oh yes, Father! It was dumb and lightish, and now it shines like the sun! Soft and smooth, nothing like the Lynch but every bit as exceptional. Gosh, Father, it's all coming back to me now. The Pichon Baron seemed to have enough oak to build a log cabin when it was young, but time has smoothed it to compliment the flavors of ripe dark cherry fruit. It was good then, but now . . ." Tears came to Ralph's eyes and I knew that he was in the throes of an epiphany. "You have done me a great service, Father. I will say ten Hail Marys and 12 Hail Parkers. And I will drink the 1988 Mouton-Rothschild. This is one that never fooled anyone—it was great from the start! The best of earthly delights: a bouquet that fills the room, the subtlety of flavor that is the hallmark of great bordeaux. Thank you, Father, and Good day!" "Good day, Ralph. And easy on the ice cubes." "What, Father?" "Never mind, my son." I'd better say a few Hail Parkers myself. —Joe Zugelder

Who was the old late '60s/early '70s sit-com television actor that use to constantly say "Dy-no-mite?" We have two unbelievable new Kalinda varietals that are "dy-no-mite," and define value and quality as it should now be in this industry. From Sonoma County comes our 2000 Kalinda Russian River Valley Chardonnay ($8.99), loaded with spicy, cinnamon-apple fruit underscored by mild toasty oak and creamy, vanilla tones, and providing superb structure, depth, and a dry, clean, rich finish. You'll believe you're drinking chardonnay produced from the Dutton Ranch or Sonoma-Cutrer in the Russian River area. Ebby and Rex have told me it will be difficult to decide whether or not this should also be our house white for the month. In any case, a great value that shouldn't be missed. 🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾 Hey, she gets easier as she tries each wine)

I can't remember ever having a Dry Creek Valley Cabernet or any other varietal produced for us from that appellation, although some very exquisite fruit comes from that very special area. I do know that I and my winemaking team (better known as The Cellar Rats) have made some exceptional cabernet francs, merlots and zinfandels from there. Sooo, the 2000 Kalinda Dry Creek Valley Cabernet Sauvignon ($14.95) is a wine to rival the 1997 Napa Valley "Reserve" that was produced for us by Rombauer and that we had available for a short time period earlier this year. Deep ruby in color, this wine is loaded with blackberry, plum-like fruit that is deep, rich, complex, full, layered and long on the palate with aromatics to boot. It will not last long. We love pinot noir to the point of planting it up north, but both Rex and Ebby tell me that this has to be the house red of the month. I'm out-voted. 🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾🐾 Any questions to me or my tri-conspirators, can be sent to jimbar@klwines.com. —Jim, Rex, and Ebby

DIRECT BUYS FROM FRANCE

K&L buys many French wines, and some Italian, Spanish, and German wines, directly from the producers or negociants. The advantages of this direct buying are twofold: first, we can taste the wines at the property and negotiate with the seller, often finding wines that are not available in the US market; second, we can get the wines to you, our value conscious customers, at the best prices available. There are no middlemen taking a percentage profit while passing it on through the channels of distribution. You reap the benefits of direct buying by getting outstanding, hand-picked, best value wines at less than normal market prices.

Valentine's Bubbles

Flowers are fun and baubles are pretty, but try as you might, you can't drink them. Don't forget the bubbles on Valentine's day! A cold bottle of champagne is always a welcome addition to Valentine's day festivities, and it doesn't have to be expensive to be good. The Domain J Laurens Brut ($9.99) is not champagne, but Cremant de Limoux from the foothills of the Pyrenees near the Spanish border. It has a rich, yeasty nose and good body as well. The Michel Gonet Brut ($19.99) is a very high quality champagne at a very low price, made by a grower producer in Avize. Look for toast, balance and a hint of anise in this wine. The Fleury Rosé ($41.99) is made of all pinot noir from Courteron, in the southern part of Champagne. They say proudly that their town is closer to Chablis than Reims, and the style of wine owes as much to Burgundy as the stylish bottle does to the grand marques of Reims. The vineyards, which are all their own, are farmed 100% bio-dynamically, the strictest form of organic viticulture. The base wine is all from the 1998 vintage. In the glass it has a wonderful, fresh pinot noir nose of strawberry fruit and earthy intrigue. On the palate it has a great small bubble texture with magnificent depth and terroir. Romantic! We also have the ever popular 1995 Perrier-Jouet Fleur de Champagne ($84.99) a well balanced, classy bottle of bubbles. Please feel free to contact me at 1-800-247-5987 ex 728, or by e-mail gary-westby@klwines.com with any of your champagne (or sherry!) needs. A toast to you! —Gary Westby

Fantastic February Rhône Bargains

Here are some perfect choices to help get you through the cold of February. These wines are sure to warm everyone's heart with their quality and value!

2000 Beauges de Venise Cuvée Chapelle Notre Dame d'Abune ($8.99) The little wine with the big name. Lush boysenberry fruit with touches of raspberries and vanilla. A nice touch of spice enlivens the finish. Medium to full-bodied. A great buy!

2000 Domaine Georges Vernay Syrah-Vin de Pays ($9.99) The 1999 was one of our most popular wines last year. The 2000 vintage is just as good, with fruit of red currants and ample spice and oak. Notes of spice and earth in the nose. Medium to full-bodied. Perfect with a nice roasted pork or medallions of beef.

2000 Domaine Gimond Châteauneuf-du-Pape ($18.95) As with the Vernay Syrah, Domaine Gimond has produced a worthy successor to their popular 1999. A bit more intense than the 1999, the 2000 has red plum fruit, generous oak, dark cherries, anise, and spice. A touch of tobacco, farmyard, and game in the nose. Long, lingering dry finish. Full-bodied. Great acidity. Decant one hour before serving. Pair up with venison or game birds.

1999 Domaine St Prefert Châteauneuf-du-Pape ($14.95) Massive, with cassis fruit, blackberries, and toasted oak. On the finish, cranberry fruit and spices show through. It is best to decant this wine or give it an hour or so to breathe in order for it to show its full potential. It is well worth the wait! Full-bodied. Sharp cheeses and spicier foods are great with this wine. Enjoy! —Scott Beckerley

Pour Votre Plaisir

One thing that tends to happen in the presence of a great vintage like 1999 is that other vintages get forgotten. Some of the 1998s are truly lovely wines, and can represent great values as well. One of my favorites for everyday drinking is the 1998 Monthelie Rouge, Clos la Meix Garnier ($19.99) from Domaine Montelie-Douhairet. The wine is made by André Porcheret, formerly winemaker for Bize Leroy and the Hospice de Beaune. It has a bright cherry nose and a long clean finish. This pinot noir is made in a very elegant style, with aromatics very reminiscent of Volnay, the next door village and bright clean fruit on the palate.

Another bargain for affordable burgundy is the 1999 Château de Chamirey Rouge ($16.99). As I mentioned last month, 1999 was an exceptionally successful vintage for the Côte Chalonnaise, and there are some wonderful values to be found here. This is an estate-bottled wine from Mercurey, with bright clear pinot fruit and a long finish. It is produced by the winemaking team at Antonin Rodet and is another stellar success for them. Just try finding a domestic Pinot in this price range with comparable character!

Domaine Drouhin-Laroze has a wine-making philosophy that believes in making what nature gives them. Always elegant and balanced, never over-extracted, if I were to fault them it would be for making wines that are too delicate in some years. Well, 1999 is not one of those years. While still elegant in style, they are full-flavored and show very pure and focused pinot fruit. The 1999 Gevrey Chambertin Lavaux St-Jacques, 1er Cru ($39.95) is ample and a bit earthy, but still maintains elegance and balance. The 1999 Latricieres Chambertin, Grand Cru ($57.99) has an explosive nose, which bursts from the glass with notes of cherries and waves of pinot fruit. Allen Meadows of Burghound.com calls this "A wine to search out." The 1999 Clos Vougeot, Grand Cru ($68.99) is from a parcel right at the top of the Clos, next to the wall. It has a perfumed nose and a core of intense, black fruit. This shows you why Clos Vougeot really is Grand Cru! The 1999 Bonnes Mares, Grand Cru ($69.99) is bigger than many Bonnes Mares, but still shows the delicacy and elegance that is the hallmark of this vineyard. It is surprisingly forward and has a lovely, lingering finish. Finally, the 1999 Chambertin Clos de Beze ($79.95) is full, rich and nicely oaky. It has the concentration and size to carry the new oak, and integrate it. Lovely, but not as forward as the Bonnes Mares. —Keith Wollenberg

Sotto la Pergola Inclinata

It isn't easy to go back in time and make up for things you should have bought earlier, especially when it comes to great Italian wine; however, I have a special wine for you. The 1996 Barone Ricasoli "Casalferro" ($25.99) is simply magnificent. The Ricasoli family has owned land around Castello di Brolio in Chianti Classico since 1141 and by now have a pretty good idea of what the growing conditions are like. In 1874 the Baron Bettino Ricasoli created the formula for modern day Chianti Classico and was the first to take a scientific approach to wine-making in the region. The Casalferro is a Super Tuscan for lack of a better name—a blend of sangiovese and a splash of merlot that the Gambero Rosso called the best sangiovese of the vintage and awarded 3 bicchieri, their top prize. This wine had an original release price of $35+ but thanks to an importer warehousing mix-up the wine is now available to us at an incredible price. Winemaker Carlo Ferrini created a wine in which the sangiovese varietal character is classic: ripe cherry and complex plum fruits fill the nose with exciting and vibrant aromas. The palate is a luxuriant blend of extraordinarily supple, sweet tannins, intricately balanced with luscious, fruit and that ends with a long, classic, terroir-filled finish. This wine is tremendous, drinkable now and still capable of another 5+ years in the cellar.

Speaking of stellar sangiovese, the 1996 Campogiovanni Brunello di Montalcino ($29.99) is awesome; rarely can you find a Brunello at this price, and more rare is finding one that is actually worth the money. This Brunello is dazzling: luscious ripe plums fill the glass with warm, sun filled flavors, reminiscent of relaxing summer afternoons in Montalcino. The palate is lavishly layered with luscious fruit blending gracefully into a supple, sumptuous finish. Campogiovanni is exceedingly drinkable now and will be over the next 3-5 years.

The Grand Italian Tasting will feature more than 60 wines from all over Italy as well as wines from Austria and Switzerland. The tasting is an open walk around the wine industries and our most knowledgeable Italian wine lovers will pour their favorite wines and tell you the secrets behind them. To compliment the wines, hors d'oeuvres will be served during the tasting. The Grand Italian Tasting is $50 per person (sorry, but no shared tastings for this event) and must be purchased ahead of time, either on the web, in the store, or by phone. K&L Wine Merchants will donate a portion of the proceeds for this event to the American Red Cross. Space is limited, so sign up early and prepare yourself for the Gran Giro d'Italia! Jeff's Picks: Reflection

We are quickly approaching the anniversary of my taking over responsibility for German wines at K&L. Together we have increased the awareness of how interesting and fun drinking fine German riesling can be, and I look forward to the future of these wines in the United States and abroad. There is a rediscovery underway led by the commitment of growers like those we feature; the wine press (see Jancis Robinson's thoughts on this "Greatest of all white wines"); and you, the customer, who demands that wine be thought provoking. You're looking for wines that are pure, vibrant, telling with expressive flavors and "terror," and that don't tax your pocketbook too heavily. For these things I thank you. In my travels this year I'll continue to look for value and excitement in the wines, with more emphasis on finding older vintages freshly released, and expanding the diversity of our collection to include more Spätburgunder (pinot noir) from top estates. The world is once again awakening to the glory that is German wine. In the meantime, pop the cork on one of these fine examples: 2000 Hans Wirsching Iphofer Julius-Echter-Berg Silvaner Spatlese Dry "S" ($29.99), a Franken wine of immense depth, concentration and power that rivals the best Chablis with a few years of development in the bottle. This reserve bottling has a haunting minerality and smokiness in the nose with great body, texture and length that is the envy of wine makers the world over. The estate of Carl von Schubert in the Ruwer has turned out a classic—2000 Maximin Grünhauser Herrenberg Kabinett ($21.99). Vibrant juicy acidity couples spicy mineral, flowers and honey with telltale clarity in this structured and piercing riesling.
